MAKE BRICKS WITHOUT STRAW

What Attorney Lightfoot Claims Prosecution Wants Him to Do.

"It is all a part of the effort to get these defendants into jail by hook or by crook. It shows to what lengths the Territory of Hawaii will go—or rather to what lengths the special prosecutors will go," proclaimed Attorney J. Lightfoot before Judge Robinson yesterday.

Mr. Lightfoot was arguing in support of a motion he had just made for the discharge of the respondents in the contempt case—Makino, Negoro and their associates.

Sidney Ballou at once objected to the statement. "We are not special prosecutors in this case," he said, "nor are we the Territory of Hawaii."

"It all amounts to the same thing," responded Lightfoot, referring, of course, to his belief that although the firm of Kinney, Ballou, Prosser and Anderson is in this instance appearing as the representatives of the Oahu Sugar Company, the contempt proceedings are part of the campaign against Makino and the other strike leaders.

"We are asked to make bricks without straw," continued Lightfoot. "We can't do it, for we have only one straw, this poor dev—, this poor fellow, Oyama."

Early yesterday morning Lightfoot presented his motion for the discharge of the respondents in the matter of the order to show cause, on the ground that the prosecutors had not succeeded in making out any case against them. He argued the matter all afternoon, scoring the prosecution unmercifully for its tactics, which he said were merely efforts to get the strike leaders in jail by hook or by crook. The temporary injunction, he said, was issued on July 9, "doubtless for the purpose of getting these people in jail on the 10th for contempt of court, for hardly was the ink of Your Honor's signature dry before they set their machinery to work to get the leaders of the strike before Your Honor for contempt of court—just the leaders, mark you, just the leaders."

Lightfoot contended that the whole matter of jurisdiction was most irregular. The complainants had nothing to base their cause upon except suppositions and the unreliable testimony of Oyama—their one straw out of which the defense was supposed to make bricks.

Lightfoot was interrupted several times with questions propounded by Prosser, and the replies were of a very caustic nature. His argument was not finished when court adjourned for the day, but he stated that he expected to finish in a very short time. Mr. Prosser says he expects to take only about ten minutes to reply.

AUTO ORDINANCE NOW IN WORKING ORDER

J. P. Lynch, examiner of chauffeurs, yesterday completed his examination of applicants for chauffeur's licenses, and from now on there will be only an occasional would-be motorist to be quizzed. Over 500 persons called on the examiner and received the necessary credentials before the expiration of the days of grace allowed in the new ordinance.

The traffic ordinance is now in effect, and the police are trying to impress upon motorists the necessity for observing its provisions. No arrests have been made as yet, drivers being allowed a little time to become accustomed to the new order of things. The chief trouble so far has been in enforcing the section relative to the direction in which machines lined up alongside the curb shall face. These cars must be on the right hand side of the street and must face forward. Scorching on Kalakaua road has diminished to a noticeable extent, and the police report a general desire on the part of auto drivers to comply with the law.
